“Wedding Gown Preservation Company was great! The kit arrived quickly with it's detailed (but so easy) instructions and the customer service was so nice in easing me with my concerns since my gown is all fragile lace and beads. I didn't even have to worry since my gown came back sooner than I thought and of course, as promised by WGP Co. perfect as when I first wore it on my wedding day. The way they boxed and packed my gown, I could tell that they handled it with utmost care. I can't express my high recommendation enough. Wedding Gown Preservation Co. is top notch!”

“My experience with Wedding Gown Preservation was fantastic. I am local to the area and decided to stop by to have my gown preserved. The gentleman helping me was very polite and even gave me a tour of the entire facility including the actual preservation process. It was quite an impressive site to see! I am extremely thrilled with the way my dress and other keepsakes are presented in the box! I was told that my dress would be done in about 6 weeks, but actually received it back in a little over 3 weeks. Quite speedy! I will definitely be recommending your services to my family and friends! Thank you for everything!”

“After spending months researching local dry cleaners and coming up disappointed, I contacted the folks I trusted at Lady Hamilton where I purchased the tuxedos and bridesmaid dresses for my October 2008 wedding. They suggested using Wedding Gown Preservation and I couldn't have been more pleased with my choice to follow their recommendation. My family and I were overly thrilled when we received the nicely packaged gown, veil and gloves in the mail. Wedding Gown Preservation exceeded my expectations and I would highly recommend them to all future brides who are looking for quality cleaning and preservation that will last a lifetime.”
